

WASHINGTON STATE HEALTH IMPACT REVIEWS

RCW 43.20.285

What?

A health impact review is an analysis of how a proposed legislative or budgetary change will likely impact health and health disparities in Washington.

Only the Governor or a state legislator can request a review

Why?

- Health impact reviews provide objective information on proposals to help inform policy making
- Reviews provide information quickly—within 10 days of request during session
- Many proposals may directly impact health or the factors that influence health—such as where we live, learn, work, and play
- Health impact reviews can be requested for any topic—including:

Transportation

Housing

Education

Environment

Health Care

Workforce Development
