Economic development and business growth

Programs and services offered by the college include:

- Economic development initiatives and entrepreneurship programs.
- Business incubation and acceleration services.
- Workforce development and training programs.
- Community engagement and outreach activities.
- Research and strategic planning.

OUTCOMES

- Increased economic activity and job creation.
- Enhanced business growth and expansion.
- Strengthened community partnerships.
- Improved quality of life for residents.
- Increased educational opportunities for local students.

LESSON LEARNED

- Collaboration and partnerships are key to success.
- Effective communication and engagement with stakeholders.
- Continuous evaluation and adaptation to changing economic conditions.

CONCLUSION

- The college continues to expand its programs and services to meet the needs of the community and the region.
- Ongoing research and partnerships support the college's mission.

PROJECTS

- Economic development initiatives focusing on workforce training and expansion.
- Business incubation programs to support new startups.
- Community engagement activities to foster collaboration.

PREVIOUS

- Assessment of economic development programs and initiatives.
- Evaluation of community partnerships and collaborations.
- Proposal for future initiatives and expansion.

CONTACT

- College of Public Health, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee
- Dr. William K. McIver, Director of Economic Development
- For more information, visit www.etsu.edu/collegeofpublichealth