

Intergration, Self-reliance & Quality of Life of Extra-continental Refugees

Study of Sri Lankan Tamils in Brazil

By

Kadhambari Sridhar & Barbara Amaral

The whole society needs to offer an enabling environment for a newly resettled refugee. While Implementing & Operational Partners sensitive to refugee issues can take on certain aspects of support, assistance, and advocacy, there is a lot refugees needs to figure out for themselves while at the same time coping with trauma of displacement.
